Sir:

The above-identified application became abandoned for failure to file a timely an proper reply to the Office Action dated as mailed on September 7, 2006, and having a period of response extending through and including December 7, 2006. Applicants' Petition for Revival of this application is filed herewith.

The following facts are submitted to establish unintentional delay in filing the Petition for Revival filed herewith.

1. On Thursday, August 9, 2007, one of the practitioners of record, Mr. Daniel Johnson at the IBM Almaden Research Center, became aware that this case had gone abandoned after his administrative assistant, Ms. Bahea Albarghoute, had downloaded the file history from PAIR.

2. On or about Friday, August 10, 2007, Mr. Johnson informed Mr. Marc McSwain, who was the in-house manager of this case, that this case had gone abandoned.

3. Shortly thereafter Mr. McSwain attempted to contact Mr. Richard Goldman, the attorney of record for this case, but Mr. Goldman did not respond.

4. On or about Tuesday, August 21, 2007, Mr. Johnson had a conversation with Mr. Goldman about his responsibilities, in which Mr. Goldman acknowledged that he had been unable to give the attention required for prosecution of this and other cases as a result of ongoing family health concerns (both his and his wife's).

5. Mr. McSwain gave notice that he was leaving the company (IBM) on or about Monday, September 10, 2007, but he was unable to resolve this matter prior to his last day of employment with IBM on Friday, September 21, 2007. At that point it became Mr. Johnson's responsibility to manage this case.

6. Mr. Johnson discussed this case with his manager, Mr. Andrew Tennent, on Monday, September 24, 2007, and it was decided to send this case to Mr. Donald Wensky for handling.

7. Mr. Johnson contacted Mr. Wensky on Tuesday, September 25, 2007, and Mr. Wensky agreed to review the history of the case with the intention of filing a petition to revive.

8. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Wensky met in person to discuss this case on Friday, September 28.

9. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Wenskey exchanged voice mails regarding this case over a period of several days beginning on Friday, October 19.

10. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Wenskey discussed this case in some detail on Wednesday, October 31, 2007.

11. On November 19, 2007 Mr. Johnson's administrative assistant, Ms. Bahea Albarghoute obtained and forwarded an English translation of the article "XML Schema and RELAX" by Makoto Murata to Mr. Wenskey for inclusion in an IDS to be filed in the present application.

11. Between October 31, 2007 and December 5, 2007 Mr. Wenskey worked on the preparation of the Amendment and Response and on the Petition to Revive enclosed herewith.

In the event the examiner wishes to discuss any aspect of this response, please contact the attorney at the telephone number identified below.
